A Card.

EDITORS CLARION—In last Thursday's issue of the Pilot, there appeared an article headed "A Card," signed by "J. E. Fair," in which reference was made to Jackson Fire Company No. 1, and myself as members thereof.

In the beginning I beg to express the regret I feel, and in which I am sure the true friends of our community sympathize, that any discussion should occur having tendency to mar the harmony and good fellowship which have characterized the relations between the fire companies of the women of Jackson. I do not intend at this date to discuss the relative merits of that subject, but to inform you that the votes from the count; I shall simply allude to the fact that when I submitted a communication to the Editor of the Clarion, No. 1 were not in the ballot-box, but were found in the pocket of a member of the Gem club back to the Standard, and I do not intend to argue in reference to this matter, for I conceive it to be my duty as a gentleman to subscribe to the Standard, and to give six (three of whom were from the Gem) who were acting in the capacity of a board of directors, to publish their names, and to pledge with Foreman Cashman, in behalf of our respective companies, to agree to abide by the action of the Board. Now, as the only response I have to make, I deem it my duty to state that the writer to insinuate that the members of Company No. 1, or as its representatives, were guilty of anything that was a violation of the principles upon which that organization in the premises were not those of the Standard, and that the Standard is the author is guilty of a wilful and malicious perversion of the truth.

TIME OUR!

Quite a large number of subscriptions to THE CLARION expire this month, and, according to our invariable rule, the names will be erased unless renewals are ordered. We hope that we shall not be under the necessity of erasing a single name. We have recently had considerable accessions to our subscription list, and trust that the good work will go bravely on. THE CLARION at $2.00 per year, is a necessity that cannot well be dispensed with, and we trust that our present subscribers, and many new ones, will see it in that light. Our subscribers should understand that the notice "Time Out!" on the margin is intended as a friendly reminder rather than as a dun. Without exception, we discontinue the paper when the time paid for expires. We adopted the cash system two years ago, when we reduced the price of subscription from three to two dollars per year.

So general has the public confidence become in Dr. Ayer's medicines, and so great the demand for them, that the unprincipled villains are attempting to deceive the unwary by imposing upon them their worthless nostrums under a similarity of name. Cherry Pectoral Lozenges, Dr. Ayer's Troches, Ayer's Pastilles for Coughs, Cherry Pectoral Cough Drops, Ayer's Fever and Cough Cures, Dr. Ayer's Indian Pills, &c., &c. (none of which are of Dr. Ayer's manufacture or composition) are specimens of this villainy and deceit. They not only defraud the stick of their money but of their health, or the recovery of their health. It is far more important than money, to be free from disease, and to be protected by law which the Doctor promptly enforces, but these evasions sometimes elude the law, and purchasers must protect themselves by refusing to be deceived by them.—DOXER (N. Great Trans-Atlantic Exposition, Museum, Hippodrome, Aviary, Aquarium and Grand Free Menagerie.

This monster exhibition of the world will exhibit in Jackson on Friday, March 18th, and should attract a large concourse of people. It exchanges speak truly, this institution is a grand and unusual source of patronage. Wherever it shows its merits are recognized. There is one point of this show which has never before been attempted even by the most enterprising managers, and that is the exhibition of the Grand Menagerie free. No charge is made for admission to the menagerie, but in which is exhibited twenty-six cages of rare wild animals. This is an opportunity never before offered to the general public to behold a rare collection of wild animals. The motive for this magnanimous proceeding on the part of the management of the Trans-Atlantic Exposition is the fact that they, having been in the amusement business a number of years with good success financially, have concluded to treat the people of this country to a grand exhibition free, and they deserve to attract a large crowd to the fair, and do it in the most graceful and attention has been paid to the menagerie and museum, the circus department has not been neglected. They number among the list of prominent actors those known in Europe and America as the best, thereby insuring a performance which cannot but be of the first class on every respect. We hope to see this exhibition well patronized, as it is in every way worthy of it.

LAST NOTICE TO EXHIBITORS.

JACKSON, Miss., March 1, 1873.

All articles intended for exhibition at the World's Fair at Vienna, which have not already been forwarded to the Commissioner of the Fair at New Orleans, and which are undersigned, at Jackson, by the 20th of the present month. We pay all freights and charges. The party shipping will place inside each case or box a detailed statement of the contents—the marks outside to correspond. Top of the box should be secured with screws.

Articles thus far received have been forwarded to the United States Commissioner General, and will leave on a government steamer from Brooklyn Navy Yard on the 15th inst, but in view of the brief time allowed, and the fact that the Commissioner of the Fair creditably represented at the Universal Exposition, we will avail ourselves of the steamer that leaves New Orleans for Bremen on the 25th of March.

MISSISSIPPI COTTON AT VIENNA.

Messrs. Robinson & Stevens, of Jackson, and Messrs. Richardson & May, of New Orleans, will attend to the shipment of cotton from Mississippi to Vienna, which will be sent encased in fifty bales, owners of cotton who desire to exhibit should write to us at once, in order that we may not exceed the complement. The owner will not be taxed with freight charges, and will get the benefit of the price in foreign market, provided the authority is given to the consignee to display of our average staples and grades.

All people would undoubtedly prefer a fine head of hair grown upon their own heads, to being bald, or wearing false hair, and it has been the study of many of our learned men to find a remedy to restore the hair when it has fallen out, and renew its color after it has become gray. Such a remedy has been found, and is now offered to the world under the name of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer; and, to verify this statement, read the following:

This is to certify that I was very bald; in fact, my head was perfectly smooth; and it is common in my family to go bald very early in life. I have now used four bottles of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer; and the hair has grown out all over my head, and is now a natural brown.

Having seen the exterminator, and being fully convinced of its utility by a large number of the planters of Madison county, and the same having been deemed of sufficient merit to be awarded a patent, we commend it to the consideration of our planting friends. It is a most trifling and its advantages may be

In speaking of the extraordinary rapidity with which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters recruit a debilitated and exhausted system the preparation is usually referred to as a vegetable tonic of marvellous power. But those who suppose that its operation is confined to direct effect upon the digestive organs do not understand the true nature of this comprehensive remedy. It is not only a tonic, but also a gentle laxative, an antacid and bilious medicine, a mild diuretic, a wholesome exhilarant, a regulator, and a general alterative. It is to this combination of powerful medicinal ingredients, and the article often so successful in a variety of distressing complaints, each of which ordinary practice is subjected to a different mode of treatment. It is impossible to invigorate a feeble and diseased organization without regulating and purifying it. The Bitters do both.
